COL. GEO. A. LOUD GRACEFUL LOSER

CONCEDES DEFEAT AND CON-
GRATULATES WOODRUFF ON ELECTION.

Issues Statement, Thanks Voters
for Honors Bestowed Upon Him and Reiterates Allegiance

Hon. George A. Loud is a game quitter. While the returns from the several counties in the district, which were slow in coming in, yesterday morning indicated that Roy O. Woodruff was slightly in the lead, there being a number of counties not heard from. Colonel Loud did not give up. During the morning hours, however, returns from Cheboygan, Arenac, Emmet and Midland counties left no doubt that the election of Roy O. Woodruff was assured. His managers claimed he was about 800 ahead and Colonel Loud conceded at least 600. The latter went to Mr. Woodruff and admitted his own defeat, congratulated Woodruff upon his victory, assured him there were no sore spots on his own political outfit and wished him every success. Then he took Woodruff to the Bay City club to lunch.

The many friends of Colonel Loud in the district he has served with singular fidelity to every trust, naturally regret that after March's next he will retire to private life. He has been a prominent figure for ten years in Congress, has served on the naval and other committees and enjoyed the respect of his associates in Congress. Mayor Woodruff is an untired man and has his future before him. He has the opportunity, however, to make good and has a large number of friends and supporters.

Colonel Loud last night handed in the following:

"To the voters of the tenth district: As it becomes apparent that my opponent, Roy O. Woodruff, has received the majority requisite for election, I most heartily congratulate him on his success and the tenth district in having elected a most worthy representative to the national Congress.

In retiring from public life I have only in my heart the keenest sense of gratitude for the great honor you have bestowed on me in permitting me to serve the good people of this district as your member of Congress. I have no unkind feeling toward any community. I have tried to faithfully serve you and in the five terms you have elected me is most ample recognition and I thank you with all my heart for it. To the host of warm friends in every one of the 15 counties of the district who have ever been so loyal and kind to me, I am as grateful as any human being can be.

To the Republican party I shall be ever thankful for honors received, and I shall always continue to be an earnest worker in its ranks, for in its adversity or success I am proud to be affiliated with it believing as I do that our party has been and always will be the party of progress and prosperity and its policies, the best for all the people of our country.

Again assuring you of my appreciation for the great honors I have received at your hands, I am,

Most gratefully yours,

George A. Loud,

"FROM THE CAR BEHIND."

In the Detroit News Tribune.

The above is a title of a new serial story which started in The Detroit News Tribune, Thursday morning, Nov. 7. It is a story of a young man through college at 18, his hero worship of a great automobile manufacturer and race car driver, and his defense and protection of his fiancée from the just charge of attempted murder. It carries the thrill of the automobile race track from cover to cover. Did you ever attend a big automobile race and hear the cry "Car coming," and before you fairly realize what has happened it is past like a flash. In "From the Car Behind," by Eleanor M. Ingram, such a situation arises. This story also has a fine love theme running through it, and aside from interesting automobile lovers will prove a great attraction to every man, woman and child who is fortunate to read it. You can only get this splendid, thrilling romance in the Detroit News Tribune.

Moose Entertain Supreme Officer.

The members of Grayling Lodge L. O. O. M. No. 1162 received a very agreeable surprise when their organizer, Joe Morrow, arrived here from the Soo and brought with him Mr. Otto Lee, Vice-Dictator of the Soo lodge.

Brother Lee made some very interesting remarks in the lodge rooms. A committee was appointed to look after him. When the committee took the brother in tow he made the remark that he did not want to miss anything and the only thing that Mr. Lee missed was the train that was supposed to take him home.

The entertainment committee had full instructions to see that Brother Lee did not get the train, which they did in this way. When Brother Lee was all ready to start for the Soo the entertainment committee which had now formed into a detention committee, and took him to the M. & N. depot instead of the M. C. depot and while they were discussing the possibility of him going home by this route, the chairman of the committee pointed to his train starting north on the M. C. R. R. and said "Bro. Lee there goes your train and that is all you will miss when you are in Grayling."

He was taken around to all the manufacturing industries and introduced to all of the Brother "Moose" that were metal along the line.

The L. O. O. M. lodge in Grayling was just seven weeks old on November 8 and the officers took up the work for the first time and went through with the business of the lodge and also initiation.

We have now one hundred and sixty some members, all in good standing and with the aid of organizer Joe Morrow, we want to build one of the strongest organizations of the L. O. O. M. in northern Michigan.

ARMAGEDDON OF THE SCRIPTURES

Startling Presentation of Coming Events.

PASTOR RUSSELL'S VIEWS.

Churches of All Denominations and the Civil Powers of Earth Are About to Unite in Common Cause—Powerful Influence Preparing for the Battle of Armageddon—A Reign of Anarchy Will Be the Result of the Warfare Until the Messiah Takes Control.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The Brooklyn Academy of Music was crowded to the limit today to hear Pastor Russell's discourse on the "Battle of Armageddon." The text was: "He gathered them together unto a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon."

(Revelation xvi, 16.) The speaker said: "Armageddon in the Hebrew signifies the 'hill of Megiddo' or Mount of Destruction. It was famous as a battlefield in Old Testament times."

"The Lord has seen fit to associate the name Armageddon, with the great controversy between Truth and Error, right and wrong, God and Mammon, with which this Age will close, perishing."

and the New Age of Messiah's reign be ushered in. It has purposely used highly symbolical figures of speech in the last book of the Bible, evidently with a view to hiding certain important truths until the due time for their revelation. But even in the end times the Bible assures us, 'None of the wicked shall understand' (Daniel vii, 9-10)—none who are out of heart harmony with God—but only the wise of His people—the 'wise virgins' class of the Master's parable.

I have long avoided presentation of my understanding of our text and its context. I take it up now by request and because I believe it is due time to be understood. I disclaim any special inspiration. In some particulars my views agree with those of other Bible students, and in other respects they disagree. Each hearer must use his own judgment, do his own Bible study, and reach his own conclusions.

Kindly remember that I am not responsible for the figures of speech used by the Lord. My interpretations do not indeed constitute a terrible arraignment of institutions which we have all revered, and which embrace good people, of good words and good works. God's sanctity people in these various institutions, being comparatively few, are ignored when systems as a whole are dealt with in prophecy.

The Dragon, Beast, False Prophet. Our context tells us that three future spirits (teachings) will go forth from the mouths of the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet, and these three will be in accord, and symbolized by the doctrines are represented by "frogs."

These three doctrines are to have a mighty influence throughout the civilized earth. They are to gather the kings and their armies to the great Battle of Armageddon.

The ecclesiastical kings and princes, and their retainers of clergy and faithful adherents, will be gathered in solid phalanx—Protestant and Catholic. The kings and capitals of industry, and as many as can be influenced by them, will be gathered to the same side. The political kings and princes, with all their henchmen and retainers, will follow in line on the same side. The unknown kings and monarch princes, and all whom they can influence by the most gigantic power ever yet exercised in the world, will join the same side, according to this prophecy.

These "doctrines of demons," represented by the "frogs," will lead many noble people in this great army to a sane attitude quite contrary to their preference. For a time the wheels of liberty and progress will be turned, but will be considered necessary for self-preservation—for the maintenance of the present order of things.

In giving this interpretation, it is necessary for us to indicate what is symbolized by the Dragon, the Beast and the False Prophet. Bible students of nearly all denominations agree with us that the "Dragon" of Revelation represents the purely Civil Power. Protestant interpreters generally agree that the "Beast like a leopard" (Revelation xii, 2) represents the Papacy. But fewer still, we fear, will be ready to support our view that the Beast is the "Image of the Beast" (Revelation xiii, 15) in our context, given another name, "The False Prophet." We urge no one to accept our interpretation, nor shall we think hard of any who refuse it. We will neither slander nor otherwise injure them now, nor threaten them with eternal torture. They have the same right to their views that I have, and the same right to make them known to others. And I, for one, will be very glad to consider anything which opponents may set forth as their interpretations of our text.

"Unleash Spirits Like Frogs." The symbolism of Scripture, right when understood, are always foretold. When the Holy Spirit used a "frog" to symbolically represent certain During 1911, New York burned more than 19,000,000 tons of hard coal. No wonder it is a hot old town.

Another ray of sunshine for the consumer: Lobsters on the hoof are no higher this year than last.

Counterfeiters are making $20 bills, for even a perfectly good $100 bill continues to involve suspicions.

One of the huge German dirigibles blew up, but strange to say none was injured. It happened in the hangar.

The government is about to investigate the plague of rats. Swat the fly, circumvent the wily rat, if possible. The cost of feeding him, and his damage to property, are enormous.

We have heard of many mean men, but the meanest was the Geneva merchant who rescued a woman from drowning, only to throw her back into the stream when he found he'd saved his mother-in-law.

Recent investigations bring to light the fact that it is only during the last hundred years that men have been wearing trousers. From present styles, women may be following their example in another century.

Parisians and Americans now agree that the latest styles in feminine apparel are nice, but naughty. Maybe that's what makes them nice.

New Orleans has a 210-pound boy, aged fourteen years, whom the factory inspector decided was too young to work. Why not send him to college?

A Gotham judge has ruled that no court can prevent a woman from working her husband. A judicial ruling wasn't necessary to establish the fact, however.

Onion skin labels are being used by customs officials to prevent fraud through their being changed from one piece of baggage to another. "You may change, you may alter the stamp if you will, but the odor of onion will cling to it still."

There is still a chance for ultimate fame for the individual not blessed with literary art. A love letter, a toothache cure, and a complaint against poor boarding house fare have just been translated from inscriptions on Babylon brick.

GRAYLING, THURSDAY, NOV. 14

Now that election is over and new officers elected let's all assure our faith and loyal support to the newly elected and assist them in every possible way. We elect officers to look after our public interests and the better that they are able to serve us the better we should like it. The old days when it was the policy of laying stumbling blocks before those who may not have been our choice are, we trust, over. Let's all boost. From the new elected president to corner—they are all good men. We can't all choose the winners, but let's follow to the choice of the people let the majority rule then all turn in and help to make official service as pleasant as possible and accomplish the greatest.

Circuit Court.

Circuit court convened last Monday with Judge Nelson Sharpe on the bench.

Three criminal cases and three chancery cases formed the docket, and were disposed of as follows:

The people vs. Wm. Cardinal, for rape. Convicted and sentenced to jail for a term of not less than two or more than five years.

The people vs. George Brooks, for highway robbery. Remanded back to jail to appear at next term of court. Bail fixed at $1000.

The people vs. John W. Burke, for violation of the liquor law. Defendant failed to appear in court and his bonds were declared forfeited, and the prosecuting attorney ordered to begin proceedings. The bondsmen in the case are George Burke and Theodore Jendron, of Frankenmuth. And it was further ordered that the sheriff arrest the said John W. Burke and convey him to the jail to be kept until discharged by due process of law.

Bliss v. Scriber vs. Albert C. Scriber. Bill of complaint for divorce. Decree granted and property divided equally.

And Levi vs. Orlan Levi divorce. Decree granted without alimony.

Mary Stacy vs. Eric Stacy divorce. Decree granted without alimony.

Correspondence

Beaver Creek Breezes.

Mr. James Hutton is back in Beaver Creek.

Mr. Fulk returned last Sunday from his trip to Kansas and Illinois.

Miss Henrietta Woods, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. J. Cox, has returned to Mount Pleasant where she is attending the Normal school.

Mr. Andrew Mortensen has the sympathy of the community in the loss of his fine mare. The cause of her death was blood poisoning brought on by a wound, apparently a gutter hole, in the hind leg in an unknown manner.

The following pupils were promoted from the third to fourth grade: Ruth Manning, Edgar Mawhorter, Edna Mawhorter, Donald Hanna. From the fourth to fifth grade: Eva Raymond, Flora Moon, Clarence Mortensen, Marcus Hanna, Elsie Parker.

Just previous to the homecoming of Mr. Fulk, his family decided to butcher a hog, and they did it up to cook, but the next morning it was gone. It seems as if the people of the vicinity should get together and make an effort to find out who is the thief, as this is not the first time of such depredations, and it gives newcomers in our midst a very poor impression.

Loveless.

Miss Julia McCormick spent Sunday in Grayling.

The Rev. Terhage conducted services here on Sunday last.

Miss Florence Bisquette spent Sunday with her father at Kneeland.

Friends of Jacob Truax are pleased to see him in this vicinity once more.

Jerry Reagan, of Grayling, enjoyed a hunting trip here the last of the week.

E. S. Houghton and T. E. Douglas were in Grayling on Monday of this week.

Miss Sinclair Redhead enjoyed the past week with her parents at Waterford.

J. F. McGrayne, of Birmingham, was a pleasant caller on friends here on Tuesday.

W. F. Brown and Isaac Goodale, were business callers in Grayling, on Monday of this week.

Among the new pupils enrolled at school are Helen and Russell Decker, formerly of West Branch.

Joe Simme, Jos. Duby, F. J. Spencer and Alfred Nephew are attending Circuit Court, at Grayling, this week.

Invitations are out for a party to be given on Friday evening, Nov. 15th,

In honor of the 5th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy.

Herbert Hennessey, an employee at the store here, a few years ago, has returned and will act as book keeper for T. E. Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDonald, who have been employed at the Auble fruit farm this season, leave on Thursday for their home in Lewiston.

Mrs. Wm. Marsh and daughter, Carrie, left on Saturday, for Millbrook, Mich., where they will visit at the home of James Marsh, who has recently become the proud father of a fine baby girl.

E. S. Houghton and wife, Victor Lalonde and wife, also Joe Kennedy and wife, Julia McCormick and W. DeBeau enjoyed "Grit the Newsboy," at the Grayling opera house, on Wednesday evening.

River Ripples Ray.

A most delightful autumn.

Deer are scarce and hunters and red coats plentiful.

Geo. Stephan has his line of traps out, and is getting his share of fur and game.

Daniel Stephan, custodian of the club house on the South Branch, caught a large otter recently.

Conditions are ideal for fall work, and farmers are taking advantage of that fact and doing much clearing, ploughing, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stryker and son, Frank are guests at the home of John Stephan, of River View farm, for their annual hunt.

The hunters and the boys at "Field-haunters" are getting their share of game, three or more deer having already been bagged, the bad condition of hunting notwithstanding.

A most pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goldhauser, Saturday, the event being the 22nd anniversary of the birth of their son Herbert. The evening was spent in games, music, etc., until near midnight, when a sumptuous lunch was served. Then with congratulations and good wishes, the merry-makers departed for their various homes.

John Stephan, Jr., and his cousin Peter Babbit, son of game warden Babbit, got their first deer Saturday, they were sitting at a "bender."

waiting for the "old man," when suddenly there appeared on their line of vision a herd of four wildly scampering deer. Each nudged and whispered to the other, the deathly and unerring rifles quickly brought to level, the white-head-seeking the heart-region of the maddly fleeing animals. The firing ceased only when the magazines were empty, and when the "smoke cleared away," there, prone upon the earth, lay a large, fat doe, shot through the heart. Which one made the bulleye is undetermined, as each—like Alphonse and Gaston, disclaimed the honor in favor of the other.

THE GOSPEL OF THE SUGAR BEET

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley Preaches It to Farmers.

A WONDERFUL TRANSFORMER.

"Wherever the Sugar Beet is Cultivated," Dr. Wiley declares, "the Farmers Are All Prosperous"—America Fully Fifty Years Behind Europe.

"Farming practices in vogue upon a great majority of the cultivated tracts in America are obsolete," declares Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist of the Department of Agriculture. "In agriculture we are fully fifty years behind Europe, and the better utilization of our farm resources is one of the most important problems before the country."

"Old-fashioned, shipshod methods of producing wheat and cotton and corn are still in vogue in over 95 per cent of the country devoted to these industries," said Dr. Wiley, continuing his impeachment of our lax farming methods. "The growing of these crops until within a few years could not have been practiced as agriculture, but should have been described as highway robbery of the soil. As a result the average production per acre of these crops has fallen to a minimum."

"Farming, for one thing, must be made more attractive. It should be made more profitable. This will be done as our farmers learn more thoroughly the principles of intensive cultivation and get a knowledge of the methods of feeding the soil and of the rotation of crops."

"To this end I have been preaching for the past thirty years the gospel of the sugar beet."

"The introduction of the sugar beet requires the highest state of intensive culture that science has been able to attain."

HOW IT WORKED IN OHIO.

Paulding, Banker Shows How Sugar Beet Culture Increased Property.

That the establishment of the sugar beet industry in Ohio will result in an increase of $20,000,000 in the value of farm lands in the state by the end of the present year is the statement of C. H. Allen, a banker of Paulding, O.

"Ohio and Indiana should become as great producers of sugar as Michigan," said Mr. Allen, "and they will unless hostile legislation by congress interferes with the natural development of this industry. In Paulding county alone, although the beet-sugar factory here has been in operation only two years, the value of farm property has increased $5,000,000 as a result of the introduction of sugar beet culture. Another result has been the investment of $5,000,000 or more in other beet sugar factories in this section of the state within the past year, which in turn will vastly increase the value of the farm land surrounding them, adding $20,000,000 or more to the agricultural wealth of this region."

"Aside from the direct financial returns that have followed the establishment of the sugar beet industry in Ohio, there are numerous other benefits which, though not so direct, are no less important. To obtain good results from beet culture farmers have found it necessary to put more hand labor on the land. The result is that thousands of men, women and children are being taken from the overcrowded sections of the cities of the state and set to work on the land, a back to the farm movement that is of real practical value."

"This increased tillage of the soil is the very best—and in fact, the only effective—means of overcoming the weeds that are the chronic enemies of the farmer, choking his crops and exhausting his soil. Besides all this, we have found that every other crop raised upon land that has been put into sugar beets shows a greatly increased yield."

"Upon a piece of land that had been in beets the previous season I myself raised twenty bushels of oats in the acre, while across the fence one of my neighbors, on exactly the same kind of land, got a yield of not quite fifty. Last year on another piece of land that had been used for sugar beets I grew fifty bushels of wheat to the acre where the ordinary crop is between twenty-two and twenty-five bushels. Farmers have learned so well that sugar land increases the yield of other crops that when they are in conversation among themselves and one reports a yield of from seventy to ninety bushels an acre the other will reply, 'You have raised it on sugar beet land. That accounts for it.'"

"This year there will be taken from Ohio cities to the country to work in the beet fields over 5,000 people, and yet this industry is only beginning in the state. Ohio might have twenty-five beet sugar factories, and Indiana, equally favorably located and with land peculiarly fitted to this crop, should have an equal number."

PLANT THAT IMPROVES SOIL.

The Sugar Beet Increases Yield of Other Crops.

How sugar beets improve the fertility of the soil and increase the yield of all crops grown in rotation with them is explained in the National Magazine by Truman G. Palmer, who has spent the past ten years in studying agricultural methods in Europe and America.

"The sugar beet being a deep rooter," says Mr. Palmer, "it prerequisites to its culture is that the soil be stirred to a depth of ten to fourteen inches. The longer beet rooter having to undergo the shock of turning soon after it comes up in order to leave but one beet to a place, it demands a well prepared, mellow seed bed. Gathering the sugar in its leaves from the atmosphere by the aid of the large and strong veins in the roots. It will do this thing the light is cut off through being shaded by weeds, and their eradication means not only a further stirring of the soil by cultivation and hoeing, but they are removed before going to seed, thus leaving weedless fields for succeeding crops. Being plowed off in autumn gives an extra fall plowing, which leaves the land in condition to absorb instead of shed the fall and winter rains and store up the moisture for the following season's crop. With the removal of the main root myriads of fibrous roots are broken off and left in the soil to an average of a ton to the acre, and in rotting they not only deposit humus in the lower strata of soil, but leave minute channels through which the gases aerated and hence fertile. The roots of subsequent crops follow these interstices and draw nutriment from two and three times the depth of soil formerly reached, and hence the farmers double and treble their soil output without increasing their acreage."

"While there has been a general tendency toward the reduction of tariff duties, this tendency has not reached in many cases the extent of the abolition of import duties altogether. In any changes of this sort let as much as possible be saved to the farmer. In view of the great importance of domestic sugar production to the prosperity of the American farmer, it is an adjustment to be made, I believe that this should be the last rather than the first point at which to remove the customs duty."

"One of the best things about sugar beet culture from the point of view of agricultural improvement is that it fits in so perfectly with dairying and stock growing. It is, of course, one of the elementary facts of practical dairying that the rearing and keeping of live stock afford the easiest, cheapest and most natural means of improving the fertility of the soil."

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following order was on the 11th day of November A. D. 1912 made, in open court, by Honorable Nelson Sharpe, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford, in Chancery.

STATUTE OF MICHIGAN.

In the matter of the petition of the Directors of the Michelson & Hanson Lumber Company for its dissolution.

On reading and filing the petition of said directors in the above matter, with the accompanying accounts, inventories and affidavits.

It is ordered that all persons interested in said Michelson & Hanson Lumber Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of this state, show cause, if any there be, why said corporation should not be dissolved before Oscar Palmer, a Circuit Commissioner in and for said county, at his office in the village of Grayling, in said county of Crawford, and state of Michigan, on Tuesday, the eighth day of February 1913, at ten o'clock a. m.

It is further ordered that a notice of this order be published once in each week for three weeks successively, in the Crawford Avalanche, a newspaper published in said county of Crawford, and in the Lewiston Journal, a newspaper published in the county of Montmorency, in said state of Michigan.

Dated November 11th 1912.

Bruce Johnson, Roscommon, passed away at Mercy hospital here last Saturday, because of an accident that occurred to him the day previous. He was a farmer and had been blowing up stumps with dynamite when he was struck in the head by a piece of flying wood, rendering him unconscious from which state he never rallied. Every thing possible was done to save his life but his wounds were beyond medical and surgical relief. The remains were taken to Chicago for burial, by a brother, Oscar Johnson, of that city.

After an all summer labor the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George McCullough is finished. It is the old house remodeled, and it would not be recognized, so great is the change.

The delayed arrival of the building material caused the builders much annoyance, especially the slate for the roof. This had been shipped but the car burned in transit and the getting of another shipment was a matter of many weeks. A new block wall and basement were built under the house, the building remodeled inside and out and now cement block porch added. It is now a neat attractive and comfortable home and an ornament to that portion of the town.

Miss Libby Malco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Malco, in Maple Forest was pleasantly surprised last Saturday night by about forty friends walking into their home to help her celebrate her 21st birthday. The happy crowd spent a pleasant evening in games and music and so great was their enjoyment that the party didn't break up till about four o'clock next morning. A number of nice things were left in remembrance of the occasion as well as all kinds of good wishes.

Last Friday afternoon and evening at the local masonic lodge rooms there was held a school of instruction. In the afternoon Dr. Canfield was initiated in the first degree by members of Roscommon and Gaylord lodges. In the evening Dr. Keyport received the third degree, the initiation being conferred by Grayling lodge. There was but small attendance during the afternoon meeting but in the evening the rooms were filled to overflowing. A banquet was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star lodge in the basement of the opera house. Grand Lecturer Gilbert paid the members of the lodge present several nice compliments on the manner in which they did their work.

Ben. G. Appleby, of Saginaw, who is a member of the permanent military camp site committee, appointed by Governor Osborne, stated that the committee will meet in Grand Rapids, Thursday of this week and without doubt select the Hanson site, at Grayling, as the location for the permanent camp. The final report of the committee will be drawn up at this meeting. All the other sites have been viewed and carefully gone over in the past. Several propositions are under consideration. Mr. Appleby favors the site which Mr. Hanson has offered free to the state, and says he thinks it will be the one recommended by his committee. Last Tuesday a committee consisting of Col. Rodgers and Major Vandercook, of the State Military board and Mr. C. Corle, division superintendent of the M. C. R. R. and Joseph Decker, division engineer and his assistant, Mr. Quigly, were here to look over the location with a view to the running of a line of railroad to the camp site.

Claude Gilson and Guy H. Braden, of Cheboygan, have gone on a couple week's hunting expedition in Ontonagon county. Mr. Gilson's father from the southern part of the state, joined them at Mackinaw City.

James H. Wingard and family have moved from upstairs over Avalanché office into the John Everts house on Michigan avenue, that Mrs. M. Henne vacated lately. Mr. Wingard is enlarging his studio and intends to use the whole upstairs at the old stand for his work.

Walter Shaw, son of Grant Shaw, prides himself upon being pretty well educated in woodcraftsmanship, but last week one day while deer hunting he threw up the sponge and had to leave the pine trees and pass the night in a cold, painful, and wet bed followed deer tracks all day long and at nightfall started for camp but after several hours of tramping found that he was lost. He concluded to follow one of the trails and after some time came to a fork in the road and his bad luck was increased when he chose the wrong direction. The night was dark and his only guide was had by feeling the track with his feet and when he found that his course had again taken him back to the hills he decided he was to exhausted to travel further. With a grassy mound for a bed and nothing to protect him from the drenching rain but the thin branches of the jack pines, he fell asleep, oblivious to the elements or fear of wolves, bears, porcupine and other animals that rove the wild woods at night. Next morning he found the camp, little worse for his adventure.
